

Advanced Peace Circle Training

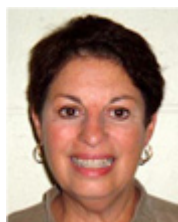

Wednesday, March 3, 2010

8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Pre-requisite: Peace Circle Training

If you've been trained in Peacemaking Circles and have observed, facilitated, or participated in Circles, this one-day course will provide a chance for you to explore advanced topics and raise questions based on your experiences. You will be guided by experienced trainers Joan Mitchell, Mary Reed and Jeanne Carlivati. The training includes:

- a summary of the current research on restorative justice and Peacemaking Circles
- video footage of actual Circles
- an opportunity to hear from professionals in other communities who are using Circles
- time to share facilitation/observation experiences, successes, roadblocks, hopes
- an outline of steps for becoming a trainer

Jeanne Carlivati is the Vice President of the PiRI Board of Directors and a retired school counselor. She conducts mediation training for students and staff through the Mediation Center of Rochester and is active in the Grief Resource Network.

Joan Mitchell is a member of the Partners in Restorative Initiatives Board of Directors and a retired Montoe County probation officer. She serves on the Board of Visitors for Industry School and is active in the Baptist Peace Fellowship and Metro Justice.
